LOCAL BRIEFS.

See Supervisor's report.
Ten or twelve goods mules for sale.
T. K. ELLIOTT.

Dr. Buchanan is having an office built in the back of the store occupied by J. J. O'Beir.

Read advertisement of the annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Ground has been laid off for a large oil tank which is to be built by the Standard Oil Company. The tank will be built near the freight depot.

Mr. Hawes has moved his stock of goods from the store in the northern part of town that he has been occupying for some time and is now occupying one of John Russell's new store-rooms.

The crossings on Main street have been vastly improved by having crushed granite put on them. In wet weather these crossings are in a dreadful condition, but this will no longer be the case since the granite has been put down.

The marriage of Miss Ross Jones, daughter of Justice Ira B. Jones, to Dr. Paul B. Macdonald took place on Wednesday at the bride's home in Lancaster. Dr. Samuel Lindsay was a groomsmen and Miss T. C. Elliott was maid of honor.

Building at the factory still goes on, and there still seems to be a demand for additional operatives' houses, as more are going up. In addition to the new cottages, a standard warehouse has been put up in which the cotton now on hand has been stored.

"If you are well shod with Sels shoes you can perform your daily duties in safety and comfort." So reads Q. D. Williford's new advertisement this morning. He has reduced the price of Williford's best gild shoe polish from 25 cents to 15 cents. Give him a call.

R. Brandt is making a tremendous reduction in his goods, and now has great bargains for his customers. His entire stock is offered at from 10 to 25 per cent reduction. He has a beautiful stock of goods and you would do well to read his new advertisement and give him a trial.

The Southern Railway commenced this week to run its Florida vestibule trains. These trains run at the rate of about forty miles an hour and do not make a single stop between Columbia and Chester. The southbound train passes here about 6 a. m. and the northbound is due at about 3 p. m.

Snow fell quite heavily for several hours Thursday morning but the ground was evidently too warm as the flakes melted as fast as they fell, to the great disappointment of the children, who were expecting a heavy snow storm. The mercury fell several degrees on Thursday and the cold was very severe.

Thursday, February 2nd, is Candlemas Day, and it is said that if the weather on this day is bright and clear a return of severe weather may be expected, but if Candlemas is dark and stormy warm weather and an early spring will follow. We will all hope for a stormy Candlemas as we have had sufficient cold weather.

Those who have valuable dogs had better keep a close watch upon them as a number of dogs have gone mad recently. We have not yet heard of any mad dogs having been seen in town, but on Wednesday morning one was shot at Rockton and another was seen there while a number of mad dogs have been killed in the Horeb section.

J. J. O'Beir will sell internal revenue stamps. There is no place in town where people can get these stamps except at the bank and the bank does not really keep them for sale. The people generally will be glad that they can procure these stamps without having to go to the bank. Frequently the bank officers are very busy and it is inconvenient to them and inconvenient for the buyers to buy stamps at the bank.

In the Carolina Spartan, of January 18th, a most interesting article on the "Reunion of the North and South" appears. This article was signed Marion Mobley Durham, Blackstone. In this article the writer shows how the recent war has been the means of bringing nearer together the people of the North and South, and how after thirty-five years these men who fought against each other have joined hands in protecting our country against a common foe.

Mr. Elisha Berry, of this place, says he never had anything so much good and give such quick relief from rheumatism as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee until he used this liniment, which afforded prompt relief. B. F. Baker, druggist, St. Paul, Ohio. For sale by McMaster Co., druggists.

HONOR ROLL OF WEIR SCHOOL.

Mr. Editor: Please be so kind as to publish the following report of the Weir school near Avon, S. C.:
Cora McKeeva 99, Jimmie Castles 99, Hoyt Banks 98, Fitzhugh Dove 93, Johnnie Dove 93, Willie McKeeva 93, Annie McKeeva 93, Lizzie Banks 93, Ephraim Banks 92, Samuel Banks 90, Nannie Taylor 90, Mattie Dove 92.

On Thursday morning two negroes, Rufus Ford and John Cason, got into a difficulty on the street near the court house. Earlier in the morning some words had passed between the two and it is supposed that they had gone off and armed themselves preparatory to a second meeting. Rufus Ford, who had two pistols, fired at John Cason, who had one, but before another shot could be fired by either of the men the police and other officers of the law had arrested the men. They were carried before the council but bailed themselves out until Friday when they were again taken before the mayor who fined Rufus Ford $20, but John Cason was dismissed. It is a fortunate thing that the shot fired by the negro did no damage for such reckless shooting might easily have resulted in a serious hurt to some one.

WANTED.
Well bred dog-slayer or pointer, one to two years old. Write Bx. 62, Winnsboro, S. C.

HYMENAEAL.
Married at the marse, Salem, on Tuesday, December 20, 1898, by Rev. W. W. Sadler, Mr. John Rose, of Welling, to Miss Mattie Broom, of Little River. A few close friends accompanied the bride couple to the marse where they were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, after which they proceeded a merry party to the home of the groom where they will soon go to housekeeping. Friends of both the contracting parties wish them happiness in their new relation. S.

Success-Worth Knowing.
40 years' success in the South, proves Hughes' Tonic a great remedy for Chills and all Malarial Fevers. Better than Quinine. Guaranteed, try it. At Druggists. 50c. and $1.00 bottles.

ANOTHER STORE BURGLARIZED.
On Sunday night the store of Mr. L. W. Hawes & Bro. was entered by burglars and the amount of money taken by the thieves was about $1.60 in pennies. The burglars have not been captured. Within the last two years a number of burglaries have been committed here, and a number of stores have been entered at different times during this period. The merchants would have a much more secure feeling if the burglars could be found and punished, but they manage their work too well to be detected.

REV. JABEZ FERRIS TO LEAVE US.
Rev. Jabez Ferris has received a unanimous call to the pastoral of the Baptist Church at Kershaw and has accepted it, and will take charge of the new work on February 1st. For over seven years Mr. Ferris has been the pastor of the Baptist Churches in Winnsboro and Ridgeway and during that time has lived in our town and has made many friends outside of his congregation who will regret exceedingly to see him leave. His leaving will be a great sorrow to his congregation, whose love, respect and admiration he has won. His many friends here wish him great success in his new field.

ATTENTION, CAMP RAISERS!
There will be a meeting of Camp Raines, U. C. V., in the Court House in Winnsboro on Monday the 6th of February next, to take action on the resolution of the executive committee to which attention is called by Major T. W. Woodward, executive committee-man, in this issue of the paper. The meeting will convene at 1 p. m. Please, comrades, let us have a full attendance. This is an important matter and we ought to give all the aid we can to the good people of Charleston in this cause dear to all our hearts.

R. H. Jennings, Commander.

FORTY-FIVE DAYS ON THE CHAIN GANG.
William Brice, a colored porter at the Winnsboro Hotel, was arrested on Friday for stealing some shoes from a drummer's sample case and also for a theft committed about ten days ago when he took some collars, shirts and other articles from the same drummer. He was detected on Friday, when he stole the shoes, by Mr. Besty, and was carried before Magistrate Catbirt to answer for both thefts. He pleaded guilty, and was fined on the first count $10 or twenty-five days on the chain gang, and on the second $5 or twenty days. As he has no money he will probably serve the time out on the chain gang.

A HIGH COMPLIMENT.
From the following item taken from the Barnwell People we learn of the good fortune of Dr. William Eggleston. Dr. Eggleston is a native of Winnsboro and his friends here are gratified to hear of his having been elected to a professorship and wish him much success in his new position.

Dr. William Eggleston left on Sunday evening for Suwanee, Tenn., having been elected Professor and Demonstrator of Anatomy in the University of the South, of which he was a student several years ago.

Dr. Eggleston's stay in Barnwell, though short, was vastly beneficial to those in sickness, and he will be remembered pleasantly by our people for his high character and personal attainments, and while sorry to see him leave, we wish him all the good success in his new field of labor that he so worthily deserves.

ADDRESS ON MORMONISM.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me to call the attention of your readers around Ridgeway to the masterly address on Mormonism that the Rev. A. C. Osborne, D. D., of Columbia, will deliver there in the Baptist Church on Sunday, the 29th inst., at 11 a. m. Mormonism is one of the recognized evils of which our country is periodically afflicted, and too much importance cannot be put upon the arousing of public sentiment against it. Whoever hears this address, or influences someone else to hear it, will be doing a patriotic deed.

Respectfully yours,
E. A. McDowell.

CLARK-JACKSON.
One of the enjoyable occasions in this community during the holidays was the beautiful wedding of Miss Minnie Jackson to Mr. J. C. Clark, which occurred at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Jackson, on December 28th. Just as the last rays of the evening sun were kissing nature good night and night was drawing her curtains of darkness around, the guests and relatives began to assemble at the home of Mr. Jackson. They were promptly shown into a beautifully decorated parlor to await the appearance of the contracting parties.

A rustic outside told of the approach. First came Mr. R. Richardson with Miss Hattie Trapp, followed by Mr. J. E. Kuhn and Miss Anna Jackson, then came the bride and groom. Rev. J. P. Isenhour, after an impressive ceremony, pronounced them man and wife.

After the usual congratulations and good wishes were shown into the dining room to behold a table groaning under its burdens of good things, to which all did ample justice.

The best wishes of the entire community goes with these young people.

THE CHARLESTON REUNION.
Charleston, S. C., Nov. 22nd, 1898.
Dear Sir: At the meeting in Columbia on the 16th inst., of the members outside of the city of Charleston of the executive committee of the United Confederate Veterans Reunion, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, The executive committee of the U. C. V. reunion from the several counties of our State, meeting in Columbia, and having under consideration the entertainment of the veterans of the Confederate army at Charleston in May next, hereby express their hearty desire to co-operate with the citizens of Charleston in extending the hospitality of South Carolina to the honored representatives of the glorious army of the Confederacy, and would express this desire by asking that our Charleston brethren in the honor of entertaining the veterans."

Resolved, That the members of the executive committee and the commanders of the local camps U. C. V. in each county be appointed a committee to give assistance in provisions, and to raise money for the entertainment of the Confederate Veterans in Charleston, during May 1899. And that in each county, the committee shall use the best means in their judgment to interest the people in contributing to this laudable undertaking.

The committees in the respective counties communicate by February 1st, 1899, to the chairman of the executive committee in Charleston what their county will probably do towards assisting in entertaining the veterans.

That the secretary have a sufficient number of copies of this resolution printed and sent to the various county members of the executive committee with the request that they place same in hands of commanders of camps U. C. V. and further that they request all papers to publish same."

I take pleasure in transmitting the resolution as instructed.
Very truly yours,
John A. Smith,
Secretary.

In accordance with above resolution I respectfully call upon the commanders of all camps of U. C. V. S in this county to convene their camps at as early a day as possible and take steps toward aiding the good people of Charleston in this worthy and laudable undertaking.

T. W. Woodward,
Executive Committeeman Fairfield County.

casions recently to extract balls, caused by the careless handling of pistols, all of which were successfully done—one boy on Mr. A. E. Robinson's place, which came very near proving fatal. He was struck in the breast and the ball ranged downward and was distracted from near the spine, fortunately missing the vital organs. The other occurred on the place of Mr. W. N. Mason, who was wounded through the calf of the leg. This should be a caution to those who carelessly handle fire arms.

Mr. D. H. Robertson has recently moved into the neighborhood to take care of his parents who are both very old and infirm.
